OBITUARY

Esteemed Resident of Vulcan Dies Suddenly

Death comes every now and then to the community, and sometimes to the least expected persons. It was so last week in the case of Mrs. Elves, and from the community life and happy family circle a bright and kindly spirit has gone, and a wide circle of friends who now feel a real and keen sense of loss in her death, sincerely mourn with a bereaved husband left with a little son of two years.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Elves on Thursday, February 15, was a sad and sudden shock, the time given to her illness being but two or three days.

Alberta Jarrett was the maiden name of deceased, aged 29 years, who came to Vulcan in 1917, and became the wife of Mr. R. L. Elves in 1918.

Deceased was a teacher, and for some time was on the staff of the Vulcan school. Her church and social connections were many and the loss of one so active and so long associated with our enterprises and our life makes a break in the immediate communion that has been so pleasant.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. J. N. Brunton, was held at the Union church on Saturday afternoon, and the suspension of business at the funeral hour and the large attendance at the service was a splendid tribute to the dead and a mark of esteem for those who mourn the loss. Flowers in abundance were tokens of honor from many friends. The remains were interred at the Vulcan burial park.

"1923 REVUE"

Company of Clever Calgary Children Coming

We are coming to see you on March 2nd and 3rd; we want you to come and see us—Calgary Kiddies.

By reputation the Calgary Kiddies are known to everybody. They are good, and everybody knows it. They come to Vulcan on March 2nd and 3rd, in what they are pleased to call their "1923 Revue," consisting of vaudeville, comedy, dancing and drama—something to suit everybody, and what more could be desired for a night of real entertainment? These little folks come with an abundance of costumes and work with the enthusiasm of youth and with the finish that comes of proper training and the development of real talent. The Kiddies are the pride of the institution from which they come, the McDonald Academy of Physical Art. They have within a year played successful engagements at the Grand Theatre, Capitol and Allen Palace, and every week Th Calgary Herald broadcasts by radio their selections throughout all America. It will be just fine when they come right here to Vulcan.

ROYAL CONTEST

Election of Councillors in Two Divisions of Municipality

Interest was manifested in reports presented and the discussion of the business of the annual municipal meeting of the ratepayers of Royal, held in Vulcan on Saturday last, but there was nothing of an exciting or unusual nature. Criticisms and explanations were offered, but generally there was splendid satisfaction.

The nominations made for councillors has developed election contests in divisions three and five. In division three there are three candidates, Geo. Coville being opposed for re-election by H. E. Challs and P. E. Bennet. In division five, P. P. Carruthers, who is running again, is opposed by L. C. McFarland. T. J. Parker was re-elected by acclamation as the representative of division four, and Hans Lundgren, R. B. Jamieson and Jacob Emor have yet a time to serve as representatives respectively of divisions one, two and six.

Mr. L. H. Stack, was a business visitor to Calgary for a couple of days this week.

Died, Thursday, February 15th, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenger, aged three days.

As a matter of fact your neighbors think just as disagreeable things about you as you think about them.

LOCAL ITEMS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark on Wednesday, February 21st, a son.

Born, in Calgary, on February 14, 1923, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferguson, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarrett returned to their home at Medicine Hat, on Wednesday.

Mrs. William Donovan and daughter, of Blackie were visitors in Vulcan last week, the guests of Mrs. Sage.

First the man takes a drink. Then the drink takes a drink. Then the drink takes a man.—From the Japanese.

The war is a long time over, but the service medals are still coming through to the boys, Gordon Hanna receiving his this week, and Dr. Wark got his a short time ago.

Local Orangemen are preparing for another visit of Robert J. White, Provincial Field Secretary, and anticipate an interesting event.

Mr. T. B. LeBow and family saw and heard the Calgary Kiddies while at Gull Lake last summer, and we have their word that they are certainly good.

Every day in every way the cast are getting better and better in their study of "The New Sin," a dramatic production that must now be high ready for presentation.

Master Johnnie Jacobson recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, which was successful, and he is fast improving. The operation took place in Calgary, where he is now in hospital.

Rev. Mr. Brunton has been chosen as convener of the High River Presbytery, and at the first meeting he was required to give a casting vote, and that was on a Presbytery resolution in favor of church union.

Vulcan is represented at the Calgary bonspiel by a rink skipped by Mr. A. G. Spooner and composed of Messrs. J. Wolfe, J. Marshall and W. D. Allan. At the time of writing they have had some losses and some wins.

There was a ladies' bonspiel at Blackie on Friday last, and Vulcan was represented by two rinks, and although the ladies did not win any cups, they were in the finals, and all had a great time. Blackie entertained their visitors in splendid fashion.

The Public Library board has this week received a shipment of new books, from which a considerable selection will be made for addition to the library. This will be the first purchase of books since the library became a town institution.

Rev. Mr. Wood will address the congregation at the Union church on Sunday. Mr. Wood is the superintendent of what is now well known as the Olds' home, an institution that commands ready and cheerful support, and deserves it.

Three rinks of lady curlers will represent Vulcan at the Calgary bonspiel this week. Principal interest, of course, centers in the fortunes of the rink skipped by Mrs. Journey, the cup holders from last year, who will make the effort to retain the trophy. That success may attend them all is the general wish.

The Calgary Herald recently printed a splendid picture of Mr. A. G. Spooner who has for the past year been president of the Alberta branch of the Caledonian Curling Club, a distinction which was a merited honor to him and one appreciated by local curlers and his fellow townsmen of Vulcan.

Roy Walker, who is one of our local wireless fans recently had a new and pleasing experience by radio. When in Calgary he visited the broadcasting station at The Herald and was permitted to send greetings to his mother, who resides east of town, and the familiar voice came into the family loudly and distinctly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobson have just returned from Rochester and other points east from here, the purpose of the trip being to secure special medical treatment for Mr. Jacobson, and with such success that they come back with the intention of resuming farming on their land near town. We trust that their highest hopes may be realized.

The curling event of the past week, so far as the ladies are concerned, was the winning of the Jones cup by Mrs. P. Beardsley and her rink, composed of Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Wright. The final was played against the rink skipped by Mrs. Joyney. This cup is emblematic of the club championship, and there are also individual prizes that go to the winners.

There was an extra and pleasing feature to the drill of the Vulcan cadets on Friday night last. When the work and the exercises were over the boys were invited to partake of cake, sandwiches and coffee. Mr. W. F. Jennejohn was their kind friend. From now on the boys will drill twice a week and will be busy fixin' up for the inspection which takes place in May, and we'll bet that they make good, for they look good right now.

LOCAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitcher spent a few days in Calgary this week.

Mr. Isaac Jacobson, who has been visiting for some time at Vancouver, returned to Vulcan on Friday.

Mrs. Dowling of Calgary is visiting in the district with her son, Mr. Harley Dowling.

Mr. E. R. Gardner, who is attending the Agricultural College at Chesham, spent the week-end in town with his parents.

Rev. Mr. Brunton is in Calgary during this week, being one of the rink skipped by Rev. Mr. Short and known every year at the bonspiel as the "sky pilots." We have not yet heard whether they are going up or down.

Miss Marion LeBow contributed a number of selections on the program of an entertainment at Ensign on Wednesday. Miss Marion is a splendid elocutionist, and she it is who draws the pictures of Maggie and Jiggs. She is an artist.

The Vulcan Women's Institute will meet Friday, March 2nd, at the home of Mrs. E. King. All ladies are invited to attend. Mrs. Alcock, of Champion, will be present and will give a very interesting paper. There will also be music.

The days of grace have passed in the matter of automobile licenses, and the police officers have instructions to strictly enforce the law in regard to licenses. It will be to the point to mention that licenses and number plates may be quickly obtained locally from Messrs. Flood, Whitcher and Elves.

Entertainment and instruction, without money and without price, is the privilege of the people by accepting the invitation to attend at the Opera House on Monday and see the pictures to be presented under the auspices of the school board and the teaching staff. You are not only invited, but you are urged to attend.

One day last week, one of the coldest days, the local senior hockey team went down to Carmangay for a game. They played three periods of fifteen minutes each, and almost won the game, but just before time was up the home team by a rather fluky shot evened the score. Two or three of the boys came back with blackened eyes, purely the result of accidents.

The W. A. of St. Aldhelm's church will hold an afternoon tea on Saturday at the parlor in connection with the D. C. Jones drug store. One unusual feature of the event will be an entertainment by the Calgary Kiddies, coming in over the radio from The Calgary Herald, from 3:30 to 4:00. This is the lunch of talented juveniles that will visit Vulcan a week later.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Carson on Friday last. A very interesting paper on "The need of Christian literature in China" was given by Miss Fair, and Miss Porter, in her usual pleasing manner, sang "I Love a Little Cottage." Delegates were chosen to attend the Presbytery to be held at Okotoks this month. Those elected were Mrs. Brunton, Mrs. Jennejohn, Mrs. Pettman, Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Robbie.

The last meeting of the local Rebekah lodge was made particularly interesting by a visit of a dozen or more members of the order from Barons, and their visit was made the more interesting by the fact of two initiations. The visitors from Barons are a live and enthusiastic lot of ladies, and the visit was a pleasure to guests and hosts. Refreshments were served after the lodge meeting, and altogether everybody had a great time.

Talk about publicity, but that record load of wheat and team of thirty horses has made "Slim" Moorehouse almost as well known as the Prince of Wales, and Vulcan has by this time been recognized as some real place on the face of this earth. In a letter dated February 13, Robert J. C. Stead, Director of Publicity, Ottawa, says: "You will be interested to know that I have just had a note from our London publicity connections saying the article from The Vulcan Advocate and photographs will be reprinted in special supplements of twenty-six important British papers in the near future." In this connection we might mention that the current issue of "Popular Mechanics" carries two splendid cuts of the event, and the last issue of the "Farm and Ranch Review" had the best yet, a group of three views, occupying the whole of the front page.

HOW often the worker for a salary forgets that he is a business man. Is there any reason why the provincial government should have all of the amusement tax? Members of the Legislature, should, this season, see that the Act is amended to provide that a portion of it should be divided among the municipalities.

Quebec claims to be the lowest taxed province of the Dominion, the figures standing: Quebec, per head, $6.31; Ontario, $8.97; New Brunswick, $3; Nova Scotia, $8.75; Manitoba, $15.34; Saskatchewan, $15.66; Alberta, $14.41 and British Columbia, $29.01.

Tutankhamen stored away his furniture three thousand years ago. It was a long time to wait but he probably figured that the advance in prices would make it worth while. But even at present prices it was a doubtful investment when you consider interest and everything.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Globe reads Capt. Shaw, M.P. for Calgary, out of the Progressive party because he moved a sub-amendment that embarrassed the government and thus embarrassed the Progressive party in the House. It's marvellous the power of the press!

A correspondent of the Toronto Star takes the German side against the French in the matter of the Ruhr occupation and to show their militarism cites several wars that were started by the French. He should have included the French revolution. We are credibly informed it was started by them.

Speaking on the railway question Hon. W. S. Fielding said he had grave doubts that public ownership would be successful. There would not have been public ownership of the G. T. R. and C. N. R. if private ownership had been successful. Moreover, public ownership is not likely to be successful while under the control of men who think it cannot be.

The Finance Minister is refusing to accept the amendment to the address intimating that the government would have to resign if defeated on either of them, and admonished them to reflect on the chaos that would ensue. He probably dreads the thought of some party coming back with twenty-five majority over all, thus bringing about another period of usurpation and autocracy.

After the directors of the national railways were appointed there arose a row in Quebec City and district because there was not a man from that district on the Board. Now Premier King explains that Sir Henry Thornton and he are agreed that there ought to be a director from that district on the Board. This sort of thing confirms us in the belief that Sir Henry Thornton is a big man physically.

LIVERPOOL WHEAT PRICE

During the past few weeks there have appeared in the press letters about the difference between the price of wheat in Canada and the price of wheat in Liverpool, and during the same time many farmers have written to the Grain Exchange on that subject. It is more than likely that farmers have been asking country elevator operators about the same thing. For this reason we think it advisable to give you some accurate information on the matter.

A very fair sample of the letters referred to appeared in the Grain Grower's Guide of January 17th from Mr. A. Lunan of Fort Saskatchewan. Mr. Lunan makes the following statement: "The Edmonton Journal of Tuesday, December 12th, quotes No. 1 Northern Wheat at 82 cents per bushel at Edmonton, and 10s. 5d. per bushel at Liverpool. 10s. 5d. at the exchange rate quoted for the same day is equal to $2.41 Canadian money. The transportation charges from Edmonton to Liverpool are approximately 46 cents per bushel, 46 plus 82 equals $1.28, cost of buying and transporting one bushel of wheat from Edmonton to Liverpool, where it sells for $2.41, leaving a net profit for the middleman of $1.13 per bushel, while the farmer is paying a little over 135 per cent. commission for selling his wheat."

Based on this statement, Mr. Lunan says all sorts of things about the grain trade.

Now, what are the facts? There is a future's market at Liverpool, operated by the Corn Trade Association there. Wheat prices in that market are not quoted per bushel, they are quoted "per cental," and a cental means 100 lbs. while the bushel is only 60 lbs.

On December 12th December wheat was quoted in the Liverpool market for futures at 10s. 5d. per cental, and this is the price that Mr. Lunan refers to. He, apparently, does not know that this price, was for 100 lbs. of wheat and not for 60 lbs.

Mr. Lunan states that 10s. 5d. on that date was equal to $2.41 Canadian money. If so, 10s. 5d. was equal to $1.44 per bushel, which throws a very different light on his statement.

This, however, is not the whole of the story. On the futures market in Liverpool the seller can deliver to the buyer on the same contract either Manitoba wheat or U. S. spring wheat or U. S. hard wheat or Australian wheat, as it suits him, provided the wheat he offers to deliver is satisfactory to the Grading Committee of the Liverpool Corn Trade Association.

Now, Canadian exporters do not and cannot sell Canadian wheat that way, and the price at which the Canadian exporter sells is not the futures price as quoted in Liverpool market for futures. The Canadian exporter, as a rule, sells on what is called a "c.i.f." contract (cost, insurance and freight). In other words, the Canadian exporter buys Canadian wheat in Canada, pays the freight and all charges to the seaboard, charters the ocean liner, pays all charges on and is responsible for the wheat until the ship gets to Liverpool; but he does not deliver the wheat from the boat to the dock, the buyer is responsible for that.

Using the technical term, the Canadian exporter sells Canadian wheat i.f. the steamer at the dock at Liverpool, and the Liverpool prices with which Canadian prices should be compared are the prices that the Liverpool buyer offers or pays to the Canadian exporter for wheat in that position.

Coming now to the 11th-12th December, how much were Liverpool buyers offering for wheat on that date?

On the evening of December 11th one of our exporters offered a Liverpool buyer No. 1 Northern wheat at 49s. per quarter i.f. Liverpool, the quarter being 8 bushels. The Liverpool buyer cabled back that the price was too high, as there was very little demand for Canadian wheat at the time, and he bid 48s. per quarter (or 6s. per bushel) for January shipment. At the rate of exchange on that date this bid was $1.39 (Canadian money) per bushel. This was the best bid that this exporter could get from Liverpool on the evening of the 11th and the morning of the 12th.

The closing price at Fort William was $1.07-7/8 per bushel on December 12th. Had the exporter accepted the bid, therefore, he would have had 31-1/4c per bushel out of which to pay all the costs of getting the wheat from Fort William to Liverpool and to make his profit, and as he could not make any profit on the bid he refused it.

How very different these facts are from Mr. Lunan's statement.

Coming now to Canadian prices on that date, the closing price at Fort William was, as stated, 107-7/8. If a farmer had held his wheat in store Fort William, he could have sold at the full closing price, out of which he would have paid the costs of putting his wheat in store Fort William and the 1c a bushel commission. If he had had his wheat on track on that date, he could have sold at $1.07-7/8 out of which he would have paid his costs.

Fort William, all that the grain trade would have received would have been the country elevator charge, 1-1/4c, the commission for selling, 1c, and the terminal elevator charge, 1-1/4c, a total of 4c a bushel; and the same applies had he sold it on track.

Mr. Lunan takes the price of wagon-load wheat at Edmonton, but wagon-load wheat on that date at Edmonton carried the risk of lying in Canada till the opening of navigation, paying storage, interest and insurance in the meantime.

Now, what is the total cost of taking a bushel of wheat from Edmonton to Liverpool? Well, the total cost varies from day to day, because freight rates on the Great Lakes and on the Atlantic Ocean vary from day to day. The Atlantic rate on flour is a uniform rate, but the rate on wheat both on the Great Lakes and on the ocean depends on the amount of tonnage available and the demand for it.

The items of cost in taking a bushel of wheat from Edmonton to Liverpool at the date named were as follows:

| | Cts. per bush. |
|------------------------------------|----------------|
| Country elevator charge..... | 1.75 |
| Freight to Fort William..... | 15.50 |
| Commission for selling..... | 1.00 |
| Inspection and weighing..... | .16 |
| Loading at Fort William..... | 1.50 |
| Lake Freight to Buffalo..... | 8.00 |
| Lake Insurance..... | 2.16 |
| Freight Buffalo to seaboard..... | 9.10 |
| Shippers agent at seaboard..... | .25 |
| Elevation charges at seaboard..... | 1.00 |
| Interest..... | .50 |
| Ocean freight..... | 8.40 |
| Insur. against loss in weight..... | .20 |
| Ocean Insurance..... | .40 |
| | 49.92 |

It should be noted that as compared with the table showing the cost on November 29th, there is an increase in two items on December 12th, lake freight and lake insurance. On November 29th lake freight was 6c, and lake insurance 50c.

The great trouble is that the facts about the grain trade are not generally known. We do not ask you to get into arguments with your clients, but if any farmers ask you for the facts we want you to have them.

There is a paper in Liverpool called the Liverpool Daily Post and Mercury. On January 2nd that paper issued a special supplement, and in that supplement there is a page given to the Liverpool Corn Exchange. The following paragraph is taken from an article in that supplement on "Liverpool Supreme as a Great Port" by J. M. Reid, President of the Liverpool Corn Trade Association:

"It is a curious fact, and, in the writer's opinion, largely due to this futures business, that on most day of the year the price of wheat in Liverpool is lower than the price abroad plus the cost of transport to this country. As this article is being written, wheat is selling in the trading room of the association for delivery next March at 2s. per 480 lbs., less than the cost of any wheat which could at present be bought to fill the contracts; and in the same way flour and bread for household use are usually cheaper here than in either the U. S. A. or Canada which supply us with so much of our raw material for these articles."

The important point—and it is correct—is contained in the words "on most days of the year the price of wheat in Liverpool is lower than the price abroad plus the cost of transport to England."

"Look, Daddy," said a little six-year-old, "I pulled this cornstake right up all by myself."

"My, but you are strong!" said his father.

"I guess I am, Daddy. The whole world has hold of the other end of it."

HOW GREAT BRITAIN WILL PAY ITS DEBTS TO THE U. S.

The following is a composite statement gleaned from The Associated Press, New York Tribune, and Wall Street Journal, regarding the debt-funding "suggestions" agreed to by the British Cabinet:

The British agree to pay off the debt to the United States, which now totals $4,746,862,560, principal and interest, on the familiar building and loan association plan, inside of sixty-two years.

The rate of interest for the first ten years is 3 per cent.

The rate of interest for the remaining fifty-two years is to be 3 1/2 per cent.

Between the time debt was contracted in 1917 and the date of final settlement of the funding terms, the British will be charged only 4 1/2 per cent, interest instead of the 5 per cent, specified in the demand notes held by the Government.

The amount of money to be paid every year to be approximately the same, and to be, roughly, about 4 per cent. of the total debt.

As the amount of the debt decreases, from year to year, the same sum of money pays off every year an increasing amount of the principal. This annual amount is, roughly, $188,000,000.

Treasury officials say that Great Britain will have paid more than $10,000,000,000 at the end of the sixty-two years if the foregoing interest rates prevail. The right Great Britain reserves to retire such portions of the debt at such times as her financial position permits may reduce the amount.

The law prescribes an interest rate of 4 1/2 per cent, and payment in twenty-five years, and Congressional action of some kind, therefore, will be necessary before the settlement can become actually operative.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

With the General Trend Towards Lower Prices, Business is Improving Slowly But Substantially

The annual meetings of shareholders of many industrial and financial institutions are now taking place and, to judge from the reports of those already held, the general business outlook in Canada would appear to be improving slowly but substantially. Industrial inventories are being cut down in accordance with the general trend towards lower prices, as the opinion is still common that further reductions will have to be made, especially in some cases where the price of the finished product as it reaches the consumer is regarded as being too high to permit activity of trade. In the case of some important commodities, however, prices have recently advanced slightly.

While a number of companies admit losses and defer dividends, there are many which were particularly fortunate last year and are looking forward sanguinely to the results of the current year. Among the latter are the supply houses for lumber camps. In more stable lines such as cottons all mills are fully employed, and the same is true of producers of knitted goods, both woolen and cotton. In the boot and shoe trade the usual closing down for the holiday season was of shorter duration than in previous years, and as a rule factories are busier than at the commencement of 1922. Quite recently substantial orders have been placed for locomotives, rails and other forms of transportation equipment, which will bring activity to certain districts which have experienced depression during the past few months.

The reports issued from day to day by life insurance, trust, mortgage and other similar organizations on the business of 1922 are of a reassuring character. Interest outstanding and overdue is about normal in volume, and profits are quite equal to those of average years. The mortality rate, insurance companies report, is on the whole less than expected, but in the case of certain companies the experience has been severe. The fire companies have suffered heavily from fire losses during 1922, and as a result their profits will, generally speaking, be slightly less than during the past few years. Those companies which specialize in securing funds for investment in mortgages show a slight increase in the total amount of money outstanding in this way, which is rather surprising in view of the extraordinary amount of building of both residential and business structures. Apparently investments in mortgages have been made on a large scale by private investors. According to the annual reports of the institutions just referred to, their interest collections for the year have been satisfactory, with the exception of those from certain limited agricultural areas where prices and weather conditions were exceptionally adverse factors. On the whole, interest payments during 1922 were fully up to the average.

The prices being paid for high-grade cattle at the present time would indicate that stock-raisers anticipate a betterment in the conditions affecting their industry. High-class animals are in demand at present to such an extent as to surprise those who produce pedigreed stock. It would appear that a large number of breeders are looking forward to steadier conditions as a result of the impending removal of the embargo by Great Britain and the reduction of ocean freight cattle rates. The new ocean rate will make it possible to resume the cattle exporting business to the chief ports of Great Britain on an extensive scale, and those interested are now taking active steps to adapt themselves to the change in conditions. The business has been carried on only intermittently for some years. The lower rates, coupled with the lifting of the embargo on April 1st next, have already had some effect on prices for Canadian cattle, which have steadied considerably.

PRICE OF GASOLINE

If there is any profiteering in the price charged for gasoline in Alberta, it is not within the boundaries of the province, according to an interim report on an investigation into this matter, presented last week to the legislature by Premier Greenfield. The difference between the prices of gasoline in the States and Eastern Canada and the price in Alberta is chiefly due to freight and duty. The report shows that gasoline which costs 24½ cents in Great Falls, costs 44½ cents in Alberta, 13 cents of the difference being freight, 2½ cents customs and 4½ cents accounted for by the difference between the American and Canadian gallon. The report also mentions the fact that although the price of gasoline has increased the stocks of gasoline in the States and elsewhere have also been on the increase.

HAIL INSURANCE

According to the published reports of the municipal hail insurance board from Calgary, shows a great decrease in losses in 1922 from those of 1921. The claims for 1922 totalled 1430, compared with 5479 in 1921. The losses in 1922 were only $291,679 as compared with $2,149,760 in 1921. The premium rate set for 1922 was only 5 per cent. against 10 per cent. in 1921. This is the lowest rate since 1912.

STOP SEED GRAIN DISTRIBUTION

Premier Greenfield gave a statement to the Legislature Friday afternoon in which he declared it to be the intention of the government to stop further guarantee for distribution of seed grain to farmers. His statement followed:

"Believing that the policy that has prevailed for some years of provincial guarantees for seed grain advances is wrong in principle and should be discontinued, the government at its first regular session initiated a policy looking to the final termination of such advances. The effect of the Drought Area Relief Act has been to conserve adequate grain for seed grain purposes throughout the major part of that area.

"The experience of the province in past years in advancing seed grain has not been a happy one, as the following statement will show:

Total amount guaranteed and advanced for seed grain relief and rye in municipal districts to December 31, 1922 $6,006,536.32
Total advanced for seed grain in unorganized districts to December 31, 1922 $1,791,733.66
Total reductions including cancellations in respect of municipal districts advances and guarantees $2,303,515.08
Total reduction in respect of unorganized districts advances and guarantees $ 350,941.39
Total net advances and guarantees at December 31, 1922 $5,143,813.51

This total is made up as follows:
Balance due to province on amounts of guarantees taken up—Municipal Districts $2,711,691.66
Unorganized districts $1,264,872.27
Balance due on amounts under guarantees outstanding—Municipal districts $ 991,329.58
Unorganized districts $ 175,920.00
"Without doubt many of these advances cannot be repaid by the individuals to whom they were made, and in many cases the security of the individual has been exhausted. The result is certain that a very considerable portion of the outstanding debt must be borne by the taxpayers of the province in general.

"The government has now decided to finally discontinue the policy of provincial guarantees for the distribution of seed grain in municipal districts as well as the distribution of seed grain in imperial districts. At the same time the government will make every effort to render assistance in a co-operate and advisory way to those requiring seed grain this spring. The government has already been able to render assistance of this nature to some municipalities and this effort will be continued.

"Legislation will also be introduced making it possible for municipal districts to pledge their credit for furnishing seed grain to ratepayers, while the Bills of Sale Act already allows mortgages to be given to secure advances to individuals."

ACCIDENTS AND COMPENSATION

Accidents in Alberta reported under the workmen's compensation act totalled 7,518 in 1922 as compared with 7,069 in 1921, according to the annual report of the board given to the legislature. In 1920 the accidents totalled 6,418 and in 1919 they totalled 3,468. Fatal accidents in 1922 totalled 66, in 1921 totalled 55, and 1920 they were 31 and in 1919 were 43.

The amounts paid in compensation and medical aid during the past four years were as follows:

1922 $399,577.62
1921 367,102.17
1920 243,935.84
1919 84,739.18

The average amount of compensation paid per accident in 1922 was $58.26, and for medical aid, the average per accident was $58.12. In 1921 the average paid for compensation was $71.13 and for medical aid $31.80. Under schedule 1 of the compensation act, 889 accidents involved medical aid, 1600 involved compensation and temporary disability, 125 involved permanent disability, and 35 were fatal. Under this schedule 47 dependents of deceased are receiving compensation. Under schedule 2, 843 accidents involved medical aid, 1630 involved temporary disability and compensation and 69 involved permanent disability. There were 30 fatal accidents, and 62 dependents of deceased people under this schedule are receiving compensation.

During the year the board issued 162 certificates for efficiency in mine rescue work, and 259 certificates for efficiency in first aid work. Accident prevention committees have been formed in 170 of the industrial plants of the province.

Assessments under schedule 1 of the act in 1922 totalled $305,659.45 and under schedule 2 totalled $254,221.90. There are 3004 employers now within the jurisdiction of the act.

MUNICIPAL HOSPITALS

Testimony that the Alberta municipal hospitals operated under The Municipal Hospital Act of the Province, are maintaining a high standard, comes from Dr. M. F. McEachern, director of hospitals for the college of physicians and surgeons, who says, in a recent letter, to the supervisor of organization for hospitals: "In regard to the standardization of municipal hospitals, I feel that if they live up to your stipulations they are standardized. It seems to me you are setting an excellent example for the province in the splendid regulations you have laid down. I want to tell you that I have not seen anything better and I hope you will have no objection to me giving your province particular mention on every occasion I can in this respect."

BANFF CARNIVAL

The most beautiful race course in the world has just been laid out on Lake Minnewanka at Banff. On it will be run the one hundred mile world's championship dog Grand Prix Race for $2,500.00 cash prizes and the Strongheart Trophy, at the annual winter sports carnival which opens February 24th and lasts till March 4. Superbly set in the heart of the Rockies, triangular in shape, with steeply picturesquely placed for judges stands at each angle, this great natural track makes it possible for the first time in the history of long distance dog racing, that every moment of the dog derby will be visible to the spectators. It is highly probable that Strongheart, the famous motion picture dog, who is at Banff and who will co-operate in the carnival program, will present his own trophy. Ten dog teams, their owners being Morgan, Creighton, Murray, Parenteau, Bancroft, Greyson and Prairie, from Le Pas, Revers of Pincher Creek, and two from Winnipeg are already en route.

This is only one feature of the elaborate carnival preparations, which are rapidly nearing completion in Canada's great national playground. Woven in with the majestic background of mountain scenery is all the colorful and typical atmosphere of the west. Members of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police are practicing ski-joring daily. A huge buffalo carcass will be roasted at the buffalo barbecue at Lake Minnowanka on March 4th, of the famous dog race; while along main street, Indian topees are being erected, wherein each night fires will be lighted and tended by the Stony Indians.

BANFF-WINDERMERE ROAD

The Minister of the Interior has set the date for the opening of the Banff-Windermere motor highway through the Canadian Rockies for traffic for Saturday, June 30. The official ceremony will take place about noon at Vermilion Crossing, a point midway between Banff, Alberta, and Windermere, British Columbia. It is proposed that motorists from the east or Banff end of the road and from the west or Windermere end should leave their respective points early enough in the morning of that date to meet at the Crossing at noon in time for the ceremony.

The new highway, which forms the connecting link in the 6,000 mile "Grand Circle Tour," through Western Canada and the United States, was completed last fall and the engineers expect that by the end of June everything will be in readiness for the opening and the summer traffic.

The new road is built through the heart of some of the finest scenery in the Rockies, seventy-three miles of it being through virgin mountain and forest country where many of the peaks as yet bear no name. One of the unique features of the road is that it crosses two mountain passes. The main range of the Rocky Mountains is traversed via the Vermilion pass at an altitude of 5,600 feet and later the road is carried over the Briscoe range through the Sinclair pass at an elevation of 4,950 feet. The grades, however, are easy, the average being 3 per cent. A grade of 9 per cent is the maximum and this occurs only at one point over a stretch of about 400 feet.

Explored the Rockies in Advance of Railroad

ONE of the pioneers of Canada's railways, passing on the ranks of the men who blazed the way into this or that once new land, grow yearly thinner. The generation to whom it was given to first penetrate the Rocky Mountains and to seek out the routes which are today avenues of uninterrupted travel has all but passed, and while for the eyes of other adventurous spirits the Canadian Pacific Rockies still reserve in countless valleys and untravelled mountain passes scenes as splendid as any of its well-known wonders, it is to the men of this passing generation that Canada owes its greatest debt of gratitude. They penetrated the wilderness, and made it possible for others to follow. Backed by the men of imperial vision and determination who imagined and then built Canada's first national railroad, the Canadian Pacific, as the corner stone of Canada's future, they fought their way against almost insuperable difficulties and mapped the roads for other men to travel over.

On January 26 last, at Vancouver, another of these men died in the person of Captain Frank Armstrong, the history of whose life is but a history of the opening up to civilization of the Rocky Mountains and British Columbia. Frank Armstrong was born in Montreal and educated at the High School of that city. He began his career in the office of the Harbour Commissioners as assistant secretary. The family connection with that office was of long duration, his great-grandfather having been Commissioner about 100 years ago when the office was an Imperial appointment.

The call of the West with its adventure and opportunity was strong among the youth of Montreal of those days, and the old city gave richly of its best to the upbuilding of newer Canada. Frank Armstrong was among those who went into the new country, and early in his career he was a member of the C. P. R. survey that, under the late Major Rogers, found the Rogers Pass through the Selkirk. One of the most interesting of the events in which he figures was connected with the finding of the Eagle Pass through the Selkirk range in 1881. On this trip he accompanied his life-long friend the Hon. Fred Aylmer, of Richmond, and Major Rogers after whom the Rogers Pass is named. The engineering party wintered at Moberly Peak in 1882, and through a combination of circumstances suffered great privations. When things got most desperate Frank Armstrong volunteered to go south to Idaho on snowshoes with a toboggan to get food, and this arduous task he successfully accomplished in the face of great difficulty. The Aylmer and Armstrong ranches on the upper Columbia river, near Windermere, were established in the early eighties. Frank Armstrong was the pioneer of steam boat navigation on both the upper Columbia and upper Kootenay rivers. When the railway was finally built through, the first load of freight carried into the Columbia valley included boilers and engines for his steamboats. These were built at Sorel, Que., and hauled across the continent. He was one of a party to go by canoe from Lake Windermere, the mother lake of the Columbia river all the way to Astoria at its mouth on the Pacific Ocean, the intention being to report on the navigability of that great stream.

At the outbreak of the Great War he offered his services to the British Government, although he was then 38 years of age. Later when war was declared against Turkey and the Mesopotamia campaign decided upon, he offered to ship there the materials for a light draft steamer suited to navigating the Tigris, and engaged to have it put together in running order thirty days after its arrival. The offer was not accepted but later on he was called upon to take a number of experienced river men to England, and after having been torpedoed in the Mediterranean, he and his party reached Mesopotamia and Captain Armstrong did much good work in the organizing of navigation on the Tigris. He was later sent to Egypt to make improvements in the war-time navigation of the Nile. While in the Imperial service he suffered from the effects of the climate and never fully recovered. About three months ago he met with an accident which was complicated by a return of the complaint from which he had suffered in the East, and his death came without warning at a time when he seemed to be progressing favorably.

Captain Armstrong took a great interest in the David Thompson Memorial pageant presented last year at Lake Windermere, and being greatly beloved by the Indians he helped in the organization of the Indian part of the pageant. In 1890 he married Minnie, daughter of Alfred A. Barber, of Montreal, and leaves two daughters, the Misses Charlotte and Ruth Armstrong. The family, of which he is a member, has lived in Montreal for seven generations. His brother, L. O. Armstrong, the well-known lecturer, has been a life-long member of the C. P. R. staff.

NO ELECTION

Marquis Municipality Elects Council Without Contest

The annual municipal meeting of the District of Marquis, held at Lake McGregor on Saturday last, was a quiet and business like affair. The usual reports were presented and considered and the problems of the district were discussed in a very rational manner. The conduct of the business during the year was generally approved.

The result of the nominations for councillors was the return of the entire board by acclamation, and with the exception of R. N. Brodick, who takes the place of J. G. Rowe, resigned, the council will be the same as last year. Donald Sinclair, N. S. Campbell and James Shouldice were re-elected, and James Dawn and M. S. Ward have a year of their term yet to serve.
